Admission will be $10 per person per day or $15 per person for a weekend pass. I know parents usually pay to park at Jack Allen rather than pay admission, but with this being a high school tournament, we will be charging per person. We feel like our price of admission is fair and comparable to other high school tournaments across the state, and even cheaper than some. If your parents do have a problem with the price of admission, please tell them to contact me and not the Decatur City Council (this has happened in the past). This is not a city sponsored event so they do not set the prices for admission. We pay to rent the facilities.

Here are some other reminders:

35 minute halves will be played

The first team listed will be the home team and should wear dark. The home team should also provide 3 match balls.

We are also asking that each team provide one ball runner for each match.

This is an AHSAA sanctioned event, and all yellow cards and red cards will be reported to the AHSAA.
